

Race The Sun, The Ceiling Fan Serenade give it to me straight, doc symptoms show me something i've had before that i could never name to cure tell me there's some kind of human error 'cause there's no sign of her only in slumber

when it's time just pull the plug only when it's time just pull the plug

(Chorus:)
i am a mess
a poor example of the flawless invincible
passed out on the floor tonight find me here never there a stubborn tongue for her so please don't stare
invincible

is she sleeping soundly? still writing timeless entries describing all of her forgotten nightmares of me tell me all this was perfect timing 'cause i said too much to be lying
only when it's time just pull

(Chorus)

better for you better than me it's better you runaway

(Chorus)
