

Rachael Cantu, Hear My Laughter

your words on paper read much like a whole in your heart if I knew any better I would I would say that you liked it I would say that you

but i won't do that I won't do that I'll clench my fist and
play real loud
I can't
play too loud
play too loud
I can't

and it's not your help I asked for and if it's a fight you're looking for yeah if it's a fight you're looking for if it's a fight

then I've got my fist to my face and I'll hit first yeah I'll hit first

and I'll be the first to say it and I'll it first
yeah I'll hit first

I won't do that I'll clench my fist and
play real loud
I can't
so I'll run a little furthur and I'll speak a little softer so you can't hear my laughter
ha ha haha
hear my laughter
hear my laughter
hear my laughter
hear my laughter
hear my laughter
hear my laughter
