Rachael Lampa, Brand New Life

I remember when I fell to my knees
Sayin? Please, come to me --
I really need You now.
I felt Your mercy bringing truth to my soul;
Now I know letting go
Led me here somehow.
So this is how it feels when Youre around me (oh)...
So this is how it feels when Love surrounds me, yeah.
The sun is shining and the grass is green.
The birds are singing in harmony.
I wake up knowing that Youre here with me.
Thank-You for my brand new life!
My days are colored by a lasting hope;
Its like Im looking through a kaleidoscope.
I see Heaven everywhere I go.
Thank-You for my brand new life! Yeah, mmm-hmm.
I never realized what it meant to be free;
Now I see, all I need
Is what You want for me.
And I believe it -- Youve erased any doubt
I know it now; cant live without
All Youve given me, yeah.
So this is how it feels to be forgiven...
So this is how it feels to be really living!
The sun is shining and the grass is green (yeah).
The birds are singing in harmony.
I wake up knowing that Youre here with me.
Thank-You for my brand new life!
My days are colored by a lasting hope;
Its like Im looking through a kaleidoscope (oh).
I see Heaven everywhere I go.
Thank-You for my brand new life!
(Yeah yeah, yeah yeah; yeah yeah, yeah yeah;
yeah yeah, yeah yeah; yeah yeah, yeah yeah)
Ive never seen a miracle before,
But now I see them every day Im sure;
Its almost like Youve opened up a door
To a brand new life!
The sun is shining and the grass is green.
The birds are singin?in harmony.
I wake up knowing that Youre here with me.
Thank-You for my brand new life!
My days are colored by a lasting hope (oh, thank-You);
Its like Im looking through a kaleidoscope (oh).
I see Heaven everywhere I go.
For my brand new, for my brand new life!
The sun is shinin? and the grass is green.
The birds are singin?in harmony.
I wake up knowing that Youre here with me.
I wake up and You form my brand new life!
My days are colored by a lasting hope;
Its like Im looking through a kaleidoscope.
I see Heaven everywhere I go....
