

Rachel Brown, Learn To Love Me

Verse 1

Mirror mirror, on the wall, why do I feel least of all?

I've been down so very long, what's to hope for?

When being down don't even hurt no more.

I've played the fool trying to remake myself,

time and time again to gain the love of somebody else,

But that's gon' change, I'm gonna rearrange, it's time to exchange that old me, for somebody new....

Chorus

So, I gotta learn, to love me! Before I try to love somebody else!

I gotta learn, to give good love, I've got to start by loving myself!

Verse 2

Countless sleepless nights, years of tear drop stains,

all the mental abuse, and all the physical pain.

So easy to allow my past to take the blame,

and let my circumstances, remain unchanged.

I'm gonna pray for to deliver me,

from those old shackles that refuse to set me free,

so i can flee, be all that I can be... I want to sing in a new key!

Cause I do believe...

Chorus

That I've got to learn, to love me, before I try to love somebody else!

I've gotta learn, to give good love I've got to start by loving myself!
