

Rachel Ferguson, You're Not Alone

Hold my hand, ill walk you there through the dust and up the starirs take my hand were almost there your not alone
you no i care
together we can make it through you no im here for you
when everythings unknown you no you've got a friend when your full of doubt and it seems theres no way out through all the wrongs
and ups and downs
youll be stonger in the end
hold my hand
ill help you grow ill help you stand
when you feel alone
ill never turn my back on you i know its something you would do its something you would do
you no you've got a freind
well make it through dont let it break you hold my hand when you feel lost,(or love)
(fades out)
