

Rachel Fuller, Shine

Cold and grey
I fade away
And guard my light inside
Waiting for the moment when
It will no longer hide

'Cause deep inside me is a spark
And when I feel it's time
I will release it from my heart

Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine

I am everything
And I am nothing
I am yours and you are mine
I'm connected
I have the power
For as long
As I can shine

Watch me shine
I will possess
Every second of your time will be mine just for awhile

Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine

'Cause deep inside me is a spark
And when I feel it's time
I will release it from my heart

Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine

Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine
Stand back and watch me shine
