

Rachel Goode, I'm Loving me

On a race to reach tomorrow
City lights turn into stripes
When I'm sending off my tears into the night
As I'm breathing out my sorrow
When I'm leaving you behind
I can almost see the sun begin to rise

Life's a highway, now I'm driving
And I'm on the right track
I hear a voice inside me saying
There's no turning back

Feel the wind in my hair (Woah)
Love is still there
But I'm loving me
I am ready to fly
Reach for the sky
Finally I'm free
Loving me

In your never-ending mind game
It's impossible to win
Now I'm out, I fold
So I can count me in

Life's a highway, now I'm driving
And I'm on the right track
I hear a voice inside me saying
There's no turning back

Feel the wind in my hair (Woah)
Love is still there
But I'm loving me
I am ready to fly
Reach for the sky
Finally I'm free
Winds are changing
But I'm not afraid
I am ready to fly (Woah)
Reach for the sky
Finally I'm free
Loving me

Woah-oah
Woah-oah
Woah-oah-oah-oah
Winds are changing
But I'm not afraid
Feel the wind in my hair
Love is still there
But I'm loving me

Feel the wind in my hair (Woah)
Love is still there
But I'm loving me
I am ready to fly
Reach for the sky
Finally I'm free
Winds are changing
But I'm not afraid
I am ready to fly (Woah)
Reach for the sky
Finally I'm free
Loving me
