

Rachel Grae, You Suck (TikTok)

Said you're an all in all or all out guy
But you couldn't make up your mind
Said you'd commit, left the next night
What a waste of my time

Think you should tell her I exist
That we were checkmarks on your list
Maybe you'll finally admit
You fucked up and you know it

You suck
I can't even lie
That's one
Of many reasons why
I never even needed closure
Made it too easy to get over you
You suck
You'll never get it right
You'll mess up
Someone else's life
They're never gonna need your closure
Cause it's too easy to get over you
Made it too easy to get over you

Did you say the same things to her
You're afraid you'll get obsessive
You lying only makes it worse
But you had to be pathetic

Think you should tell her I exist
That we were checkmarks on your list
Maybe you'll finally admit
You fucked up and you know it

You suck
I can't even lie
That's one
Of many reasons why
I never even needed closure
Made it too easy to get over you
You suck
You'll never get it right
You'll mess up
Someone else's life
They're never gonna need your closure
Cause it's too easy to get over you
Made it too easy to get over you
Made it too easy to get over you

I should've seen it coming
Cause you're so predictable
If this has taught me one thing
It'd be
That you're everything I never wanted
Ruined my life now you're gone from it
Ghosted me but I'm not haunted
Not by you

You suck
I can't even lie
That's one
Of many reasons why
I never even needed closure
Made it too easy to get over you

You suck
You'll never get it right
You'll mess up
Someone else's life
They're never gonna need your closure
Cause it's too easy to get over you
Made it too easy to get over you
Made it too easy to get over you
