

Rachel Stamp, Black Cherry

i was born with a red dress on i am a bad motherfucker a horny angel with tits of chrome i love you like no other each time I look in your eye I get a hot sensation each time I look in your eye I get a good vibration she said, i know, baby don't fear stop crying all your tears i got a flavour that is sweet to taste and I just know you're gonna like it hot dang, leading me on like a pony to the slaughter i was the beast upon her back drinking poisoned water i never wanted to wear this crown but that nasty little kitten struck this poor boy down
