

Rachel Stamp, Black Tambourine

Undertaker princess
I would rip out my heart to be inside your dress undertaker princess
I would sacrifice myself to your kiss of death but what's the use in saying "I love you"? when i know you'll only break my heart every day to you i'm on my knees shake your black tambourine dead girl in wonderland it feels so beautiful in your cold arms

dead girl in wonderland
i never want to leave please let me stay for ever and ever but i won't ever tell you i love you cos i know you'll only break my heart every day my wicked queen i'm begging please shake your black tambourine
