

Rachid Taha, The One To Destroy Me

Here is my tattered tattle tale
I'm telling on you
And how I fell into your web
Happened too soon
I fell for a pretty face
Innocent boy lost to a stranger
In a strange bed

Well I was your sacrifice
You knew it all the time
I can feel the cancer eating me alive

Don't you know you'll be the one
To destroy me, baby
Don't you know you'll be the one
I'll always love

Embrace my ugly, showered me with praise
Created a love so fruitless
Gave me your poison
And then you walked away
You watched as I walked into your mess

Well I was your sacrifice
I risked my very life
And now I can feel you
Eating me alive

Don't you know you'll be the one
To destroy me
Don't you know you'll be the one
I'll always love

Sometimes I feel I'm going to cry
Cuz I know somewhere you're watching me die
You linger on
Linger on, linger on...

You increase my disease

Don't you know you'll be the one
To destroy me, baby
Don't you know you'll be the one
I'll always love

Be the one...
I'll always...
You...
You...
Be the one...
