

Racoon, Run Out

Someone should know the way
But they just failed to tell me
And dont be late they say
Dont be late
Someone should know your name
Grabs your new guitar
Throws it on the fire It burns ok

Nobody gets the best of me
Before they see the worst I'd better leave
Nobody gets the best of me
Before they see my worst I never

Run out
Run out
Run out
I run out
Run out

Better be ones own
But you cant live on air alone
Beggars they dont choose and yes you do
Maybe I know the way
Maybe I know the why, he says
Better ask no questions
Hear no lies

Nobody gets the best of me
Before they see the worst I'd better leave
Nobody gets the best of me
Before they see the worst I never

Run out
Run out
Run out
I run out
Run out
