

Rad Kick, Wait For Me

I am running as fast as i can
I can feel them but I see no chain
It seems I can do only just one step
I feel caught like a fly in a web
I see the people around me
Walking by and starring through me
As I am invisible for all - made out of glass
Why don't you
Wait for me, wait for me
tell me why you don't
Wait for me, wait for me

Pass me by you don't
Wait for me, wait for me
Who I am you don't
Wait for me, wait for me
It's cold and I try to run away
I fall on the ground can't get up again
The laughing snow buries my back
The white beauty turns into deep black
I am turning around to see where you go
It seems there is no end of the road
Winding like a snake who moves so slow in falling snow
