

Radial Angel, Untitled

your life is coming undone but your face will carry as one the tree is naked blowing your life but your lies, existing one by one you never called me yesterday is that because you're ashamed cause you're beauty will come out straight but your lies, your lies, your lies

(chorus)

i... can't... go on why... won't you say it and mean it why... won't you say it to me and mean it too why... won't you say it to my face again, so why... oh my friend

you never look at me the same is that because you're to blame your beauty comes out strong but your lies, your life, you lied
