

Radical Noise, Actor Acts Well

We know all your plans, at the back of your mind
And when you come, we'll erase your fame

We're sick of your lies, you look like a friend
You played your game, played it well

The time allowed for you is over, actor acts well
We won't be here for you to take cover, actor acts well

You laugh at our backs, but you forget the fact
Now we take a stand, stronger than hate

One foot in the grave, no chances to take
The time has come, death of all faith

The time allowed for you is over, actor acts well
We won't be here for you to take cover, actor acts well

Death of all faith
Coming from the heart, my mind lacks love
Against your tide, I'll take what's mine

We're sick of your lies, you look like a friend
You played your game, played it well

You laugh at our backs, but you forget the fact
Now we take a stand, stronger than hate

The time allowed for you is over, actor acts well
We won't be here for you to take
