

Radical Noise, Revolt

Insecure times, frightened hearts
We're wearing the mask of resistance
Like a flying dream, aren't we too kind
To the unknown ones, but when the hatred rise...

If there's a day for women
There are no "women's rights";
If there is a day for "human";
There are no human rights
All we celebrate is our slavery rights

Revolt!
For freedom
Destroy!
To build yours
