

Radical Noise, Sweet Revenge

What life has brought me to this day?
Just the pain, I live with everyday
Can't trust! Nothing left for me to say...
Can't cope with this inhuman mess.

"People" make choices an seperate
It used to be a matter of love and hate
Noone cares about it now, but I can't wait
The start of war - my revenge

Again and again I tried so hard
Can't you see, they celebrate our cries
No way, this time I won't obey
Consumed... Coloured mass media saves the day

I tried
So hard...
