Radiohead, Ripcord

Soul destroyed with clever toys for little boys It's inevitable, inevitable, it's a soul destroyed You're free until you drop You're free until you've had enough But you don't understand You've no ripcord No ripcord, no ripcord

Aeroplane Do I mean what I mean? It's inevitable, inevitable, oh aeroplane A thousand miles an hour And politics in power That you don't understand You've no ripcord No ripcord, no ripcord

The answer to your prayers We'll drop you anywhere With no ripcord No ripcord, no ripcord, no ripcord
