

Raekwon, Once Upon A Time

(feat. Tekitha)

[Intro: Raekwon (Tekitha)]

Chill, nigga, chill.

Get some rest, man, come on, man

Stop playin' wit' me, man

(ohhhhhhh ohhhhhhh ohhhhh)

[Chorus: Tekitha]

Lately... I had a love that would ignite all the fire

The desire would leave, for you I'd admire

Lately... you seem all corrupt

I've had enough and you forced me to hide under covers

Drove me to arms of another

[Raekwon]

Broke the top of goose-down sheets, kissed her on the neck

Real love, hope this ain't the last time we meet

Felt like a King who had a Queen want him

I usually deserve hotels, this one's the gift, slick

On our eye-to-eye contact, body movement, all on the grind

A lady's starin' at me, all in my mind

Sayin', "Boo, I gotta live with you, let's connect and be a bridge"

You stay three forths and I'ma wiz you

[Tekitha]

Months ago.. you came to me

Told me... love me forever

See.. time has passed.. and lonely days

Have rid his head now.. stormy weather

But out of the rain.. came some delight

I ain't ashamed.. I know that it's right

The way that I'm feelin'..

He touches me.. in ways I like

Says things you won't.. won't day or night

Givin' me healin'.. I'm leavin'

cuz you wanted to know.. that is the reason

[Chorus]

[Tekitha]

The only set back in my state of grace

Is that.. the love is real.. for you and him

In different ways.. and.

You're out in space.. yes here on Earth it's fun to play

I wish you were present so my love wouldn't go astray

And he gives what I need.

Quenches my thirst when you say "Girl, please"

That's a waste of my breath

It's funny to me.. that you get upset

And I told you quite often

I'ma fill up the space.. did ya think I was talkin'

out the side of my neck..

You left me alone, what did you expect?

[Chorus]

[Raekwon]

I'm dead in my sleep, she's standin' over the kid

I'm terrified, shorty was deep

I had my hand in her account plus livin' in a lab

Like a Count, I had to go six shorties was pink yo

She had the yolk on me that's when I went broke

We used to flip coke together, get boasted and float

We split real bread, we was large
We had our weddin' in the garage
And then she stopped reviewin' my bars
Hold up

[Chorus]

[Tekitha]

Heeeeeeyyyyyy... yyyyyyyyyeeeeeeaaaaahhhh
Forever.. ohhhhhh bbbbaaaaaabbbbbbbbyy
Ohhhhhh yyyyyooooouuuuuu yyyyyyyyyooooouuuuu

[Chorus to the fade]
