You are always missed here
(we miss) your love and your happy smile where are you going to and where are you exactly where will you go, everything in my souls cries for you everything in my soul yearns you
You are always missed here

You are always missed here
(we miss) your love and your happy smile
where are you and where are you going to
everything in my soul yearns for you
You are always missed here

You are always missed here
(we miss) your love and your happy smile
where are you and where will you go how are you, everything in my souls yearns for you
(for) your soul of custard apple
