

Rag'n'Bone Man, Rush of Blood

Don't know what I want, don't know what I need
Something has gotta give
I want it

Don't know what I want, don't know what I need
Something has gotta give
And I can't even speak, through my gritted teeth
Something has gotta give, I want it

Why does it weigh so heavy on my mind
Why do I contemplate it every time?
I use the darkness to forget it, darkness to forget it
Know that when I get it

I feel the thunder roll tonight
Like a rush of blood, oh
I feel the thunder roll tonight
Let the pressure go, I want it
Pounding in my head like an echo
'Cos I don't wanna think of tomorrow, oh
I feel the thunder roll tonight
Like a rush of blood, oh

Show me something good, get me in the mood
Shut all the voices out
I can't get enough, I ain't feeling much
Shut all the voices out, I want it

Why does it weigh so heavy on my mind
Why do I contemplate it every time
I use the darkness to forget it, darkness to forget it
Know that when I get it

I feel the thunder roll tonight
Like a rush of blood, oh
I feel the thunder roll tonight
Let the pressure go, I want it
Pounding in my head like an echo
'Cos I don't wanna think of tomorrow, oh
I feel the thunder roll tonight
Like a rush of blood, oh

I want it
Like a rush of blood, oh

Don't know what I want, don't know what I need
Something has gotta give

I feel the thunder roll tonight
Like a rush of blood, oh
I feel the thunder roll tonight
Let the pressure go, I want it
Pounding in my head like an echo
'Cos I don't wanna think of tomorrow, oh
I feel the thunder roll tonight
Like a rush of blood, oh

I want it
Like a rush of blood, oh
