

Rage, Certain Days

When I remember what happened that lead me right here what made me lonely and forced me to disappear.
There were periods in my life that came from my darkest depths, beyond the edge like a delirium I couldn't help, I drifted aside, it wasn't right

Time, time had slipped away life was a distant haze this was on certain days
I, I had lost my way
got lost without a trace this was on certain days, I went mad...

I can recall the days when things were fine Everyone was happy enjoying their time but the first time it came over me I had lost my friends, I did harm to them the judges told me I was insane, I tried to kill, I tried to kill!

Time, time had slipped away life - a distant haze
this was on certain days
I, I had lost my way
got lost without a trace
this was on certain days, I went mad...
