Rage, Light Into The Darkness

Shadows in my mind, it's dead, all I had inside bunched is the old fear, just to let a new one appear just be quiet, my heart, and keep the peace in the dark blossom's better than decay, there must be more for me, I can't wait

Oh, when will you leave, eternal night, you lead to the nevermore end up this chain existence, now, the best is yet to come for me

There's light into the darkness so come and lay down by my side there's light into the darkness come on and rest your mind in my arms let me enlight your darkness there's nothing better than a friend give light into my darkness...

I've heard a distant voice, it said aloud the word I'm waiting for Just keep quiet in peace, beware your heart in the dark, the word is here

Can you see the colours in the new born leaves on every tree rescue can be found in each thing, if one just gets into it

free of pain, free from doubts, free of fear

Can you see the colours in the new born leaves on every tree rescue can be found in each thing, if one just gets into it

There's light into the darkness so come and lay down by my side there's light into the darkness so let me lay down by your side there's light into the darkness...

if I just get into it
