

Ragnarok, My Refuge In Darkness

A new world has opened a world among the stars
I have now found my star and it will be my new home until the end of my stargate vision Among the star I rest now it's the time of silent Only the sound of falling stars break the silent
Only in my dreams exist this world
It's just wonderful to hover in the empty space
No feelings for humanity
a perfect world for me
I wish it last forever
This world made from depths of the darkest space of mind Such vision of deathview
I search now for my death and meet the shadow world
