

Rain Fell Within, The Only One

(South American Bonus Track)

As quickly as the days have passed. Like falling tears.
As cold as fall's dead rotting grass, are these last years.
Thoughtless, I know.
Staring in silence.
Timeless, I know.
Standing in darkness.
And I see their bodies mangled on the ground.
And the screaming will haunt me.
For now, death all around. Can you hear me?
Or am I the only one?

The only one!
Please make this only a dream!
The only one! It was an unfair fight.
Could not run from the light.
Why I'm alive, I do not know.
Will I survive? Where will I go?
And I see their bodies mangled on the ground.
And the screaming will haunt me.
For now, death all around.
And I cry out, but I am the only one!
The only one!
Please make this only a dream!

The only one!
Please make this only a dream!
The only one!
The war has left only me, The only one!
