

Rain Tree Crow, Blackwater

I haul you in a sea of silence
On the borderline of truth
Hope and violence

I see no sun
I see no place I've loved
Depending on the signs to find the road

Blackwater
Take me with you
To the place that I have spoken
Come and lead me
Through the darkness
To the light that I long to see again

I walk with you
But sleep beside her
If summer came and went
It passed us over

I see her cry
I see the face I've loved
Depending on the blind to find the road

Blackwater
Take me with you
To the place that I have spoken
Come and lead me
Through the darkness
To the light that I long to see again

Blackwater
Take me with you
To the place that I have spoken
Come and lead me
In the morning
To the land that I long to see again
