

Rainbirds, Head Over Heals

Lovely
Like a dream come true.
How time uncovers without haste
Veil upon veil upon veil
Until the love shines thru
Spin this tender net around you
Around me.
Keeping it out, the world that bound you
Bound me
Head over heels in love with you
There is no more to say no more to do
I wanna look in your eyes and travel this dream
I wanna wake up now, wake up and scream
Wake up and run the marathon pace
Switching the powers, changing the place.
Because I'm head over heels in love with you
Easy
Like a friendly ghost
Here am I tiptoe dancing
Into your direction
I'm reaching almost perfection
Spin this tender net around you
Around me
Keeping it out, the world that bound you
Bound me
Head over heels in love with you
There is no more to say no more to do
I wanna wake up now, wake up and scream
Wake up and run the marathon pace
Switching the powers, changing the place
Because I'm head over heels in love with you
