

Rainbirds, In A Long Time

enjoy yourself
like a man
girl
like a boy
just like a woman can yeah
in the sun
-sun is the word-
like the bow of a boat
in the water where you float all the wet
all the foam where you lay like a slow damp day in the heat be a cat in the shade of a tree or a leaf in the wind
you are free
you are safe
as you stride
and you stroll
you are in control
and still
here with me
when the dark falls
when the dark falls
it has been a long long time not a sound not a word not a song we hadn't heard
in a long time
not then
but before
we have been longing for
in a long time
uhm
uhm
uhm
all these things
and all these other things to be different in the world of a girl
like a man
and a boy
just like a woman can
with a girl like me
on a sunday
the scent of a hot day - gold skin
tip of the tongue
the beginning and the end in the blink of an eye
bird in the sky
yeah
-bird is the word
bird bird is the word-
you are safe
and still
