

Rainbirds, Never Gone

listen
just once
and never forget
just one i love you
no more to be said
just one i touch you
with my smile
just one i want you
no denial
just one be strong
just one live long
on fast
going on
never gone
never gone
to me
just once this time
this one i love you
for all that i know
there it is
and it will always be here
it is here
and it will always be there
just one...
i give you my ears
for you to hear
so listen this once
and for all that you care
i give you my eyes
for you to see
this one thing
for nothing
forever
for free
just one...
