

Rainbirds, Nothing Cancels Love

i know
nothing cancels love
i know
nothing cancels love
but nothing`s worse
than waiting
day after day
yet i know
nothing cancels love
i like to shoot an arrow right into your heart and i don`t know why this is
it is always coming back i keep sending you letters with priority
and i don`t know why this is
they are always coming back don`t let me down
i know
it drives me off the road sometimes i should know much better
i know
it is not the end of the world
but nothing`s worse
than wait...tick-tack-tick-tack-
i know
nothing cancels love
i know
nothing cancels love
i know
nothing cancels love
i know
nothing cancels love
and i should like to shoot an arrow right between your eyes but i know much to well that this arrow would be coming back the written word is movable the written word is removable but my voice is free and fast my voice will last
so please confirm that you know
nothing cancels love
you know
nothing cancels love
real love
