

Rainer Maria, There Will Be No Night

If we put things right,
then we'll sleep tonight.
If we can't put things right,
then there will be no sleep tonight.

Glistening night-time,
there will be no time.
Stay with my tonight,
there will be no night.

And if daylight breaks, we'll fix it
conscious of the wound.
Unashamed and glistening,
and understood we're good.

We'll sleep in dark past noon.
