

Raised Fist, Stand Up And Fight

I don't need friends to fuck my ex-girls I don't need girls to fuck my ex-friends a broken friendship is just like a broken relationship but do I care no cause I've got my crew and the one who should be out of the crew is you I'm putting the pieces together as I was But I can tell you it's hard when you've been on the same track for so long by the way I hate you so with all my heart Stand up and fight
"This might not be the right lyrics but they're the closest to reality no doubt..."
