

Raised Fist, Time For Changes

I'm trying hard
To build up a life uncomplete by distraction
Another question, another reply
Another temptation you can deny
Truth is hurting so much
That cannot be ignored

Disappointment a fact in life
I will try to never close my eyes

Failure a part of this life
But don't you think it's time for some changes
It's time to get a grip of yourself
A hard decision to make
A lot of wall to break down
And some obstacles to get through
Forget the past
No more lies and you will be free

Disappointment a fact in life
I will try to never close my eyes

Failure a part of this life
But it's -- Time for changes
It's time to get a grip of yourself -- Time for changes
Truth is hurting so much
Disappointment a fact in life -- Time for changes
Searching for identity
But you have crossed reality
Dismiss your fear for another way of living!
