

Raised Fist, Wasting Time

You climb the fence to follow trends.
You collect the scars just to go far.
And I despise what you sacrifice to be number one.
But what have you done ?
It rips your life your only strife.
To prove the reverse is your curse.
Looking for strength and respect.
You're lost in every aspect.
Try to reach the top before everyone else.
To see someone else do it makes you jealous.
Needless to say in a serious way.
That it steals your time that you're wasting anyway.
