

Ramallah, Just Walk Away

Hatred

I been hangin' on the corner, starin' at the night sky
Watching the cars drive by
The faces stare but they don't see me
As I think about the past and I wonder why?

Some of you were born into happiness and wealth
While some of us were born to a life - of - hell
And some of us were lost, and some of us were found
But most of us were beaten by life to the ground

Hatred

And I don't believe in your society (I don't believe)
While you partied and lived it up
I've seen so many bleed
I've seen so many bleed

'Cause I was born into nothing to this world full of shit
And nothing's changing anytime soon
So I would rather die than listen to you try to compare me and you
To compare me to you

The sign in the road says we're going nowhere
But it's been 20 years since I cared

I don't need nobody to save me
So just walk away, oh yeah
I know nobody can hear me
There's nothing more I can say

Have you ever prayed to the night sky?
Under one of them cold streetlights?
Watched another stolen car drive by?
Lost your hope and said "this is where I'll die";?
And maybe I'm your enemy
So don't turn your back on me
Soulless - hatred
I can feel it killing me I can feel it killing me

And I don't know what I've planned or what I mean to do about this world I see
So many suffer silently but the beat just goes on endlessly

I don't need nobody to save me
So just walk away, oh yeah
I know nobody can hear me
There's nothing more I can say

Someone's bleeding tonight
I see another joker on the news telling me to play the fool
Someone's bleeding tonight
When all I ever wanted was a heart of gold to tell me the truth
You can rip my heart to-ni-i-i-i-ight (Someone's bleeding)
Just gimme some truth (Someone's bleeding)
Just gimme some truth (Someone's bleeding)
'Cause all I want is the truth (Someone's bleeding)
All I want is, all I need is

I need somebody to save me
But you walk away, oh yeah
I need somebody to hear me
There's nothing more I can say
