

Rameez, Hello Summer

I tried to keep my cool, the phone is always drained,
Then I missed my bus for the broken down crank.
They told me I should chill, sorry I can't
The story of my life, every day is the same.

Coz early in the morning, when I'm still yawning,
Please pull the curtains, coz the sun hurts my eyes.
(?) is boring, winter is snowing,
Wish you were free like a bird in the sky!

Hello Summer, I just wanna dance every day,
Summer come and take my blues away!
Hello Summer, take a chance on me.
Summer means live them wild and free

On my way home, left my keys on the couch.
Damn boss told me work I should do when I'm house.
Complaining to my girl, she's stressing me out,
She told me I should chill, you gotta move out!

Coz early in the morning, when I'm still yawning,
Please pull the curtains, coz the sun hurts my eyes.
(?) is boring, winter is snowing,
Wish you were free like a bird in the sky!

Hello Summer, I just wanna dance every day,
Summer come and take my blues away!
Hello Summer, take a chance on me.
Summer means live them wild and free
