

Rammstein, Keine Lust (eng.)

I don't feel like it
I don't feel like it
I don't feel like it
I don't feel like it
I don't feel like not hating myself
Don't feel like touching myself
I would feel like masturbating
Don't feel like trying it
I would feel like getting undressed
Don't feel like seeing myself naked
I would feel like it with big animals
Don't feel like risking it
Don't feel like going from the snow
Don't feel like freezing
I don't feel like it
I don't feel like it
I don't feel like it
No I don't feel like it
I don't feel like chewing anything because I don't feel like digesting it
Don't feel like weighing myself
Don't feel like lying in fat
I would feel like it with big animals
Don't feel like risking it
Don't feel like going from the snow
Don't feel like freezing
I'll just keep lying here and I'll count the flies again
I listlessly touch myself and notice I've been frigid for a long time already So frigid, I'm cold . . .
I don't feel like it
