

Ramoth Gilead, Death

Death thoughts
Ripple in my mind
Why do I shudder
When death breathes
In this mane of mine?
It's the pain of dying -
Losing life
But this isn't true

Refrain:
Death is birth, death is life
Birth by dying is an essence of life
In darkness death my morning
Came alive
His death is birth,
His death is life

Painfully a seed He died
Just this plant could live
To touch the sky
In darkness death my morning came alive
His death is birth, His death is life

Refrain
