

Ramoth Gilead, In Your Love I'll Stay

You are the True Vine, Dayspring
Without You is like a chaff that the wind drives away
So here I am like a dry land
Waiting for your rain to fall
So come, so come, so come

Refrain:

'Cause I don't want to stay apart
From the shadow of Your wings
And the power of Your spirit
So come and quench the thirst
And emptiness in my heart
Lord in your love I'll stay
In your love I'll stay
