

Rancid, Devil In Disguise

Beware who's around you hiding in plain sight
Beware who's around you in the broad daylight
Beware who's around you 'cause the truth just might
It may be the devil in disguise

Beware who's around you hiding in plain sight
Beware who's around you in the broad daylight
Beware who's around you 'cause the truth just might
It may be the devil in disguise
Yeah
It may be the devil in disguise

She's gotta smile, fit for A queen
Pick your pocket, leave it clean
Long con, swindle heist
Money down, pay the price
Never kneel, for the throne
Crewed up, never alone
House harlot, thick with thieves
Soldiers show up, no reprieve

Beware who's around you hiding in plain sight
Beware who's around you in the broad daylight
Beware who's around you 'cause the truth just might
It may be the devil in disguise
Yeah
It may be the devil in disguise

Cops on the take, murdering thieves
Nothing's sacred, do as they please
All for sale, barbarous town
Disappear, never found
Cops on hire, always paid
No guarantees, end of days
Tragic gift, late at night
What they want, plead your life

Beware who's around you hiding in plain sight
Beware who's around you in the broad daylight
Beware who's around you 'cause the truth just might
It may be the devil in disguise
It may be the devil in disguise
