

Rancid, The Way I Feel About You

Pick me back up just to throw me back down apooxies too like when you're up against the wall compassion heals while duplicity kills you say I'm different the only thing different is the way I feel about you You moved up the ladder at a very rapid speed we mived methodically and calmly when you got to the top you see enemies if I knew back then what I know that it would all turn out like this I'd sit back and I'd watch you squirm cause you say I'm different the only thing different is the way I feel about you.....
