

Random Ruins Of Reality, Agony

I've tried to forget... you but you're carved in my heart I still feel your touch your warm breast, your sweet skin... your kiss you're still a part of me you are the reason I thrill you follow me in my dreams you've never left my mind at all and you know my life now is only agony... for me please come back to me I cannot bear a minute more...
I've tried to forget you but you've marked my soul with fire I have met a girl but I see you in her eyes... you're there you are a curse on me you are the one for whom I'll kill 'cause I still recall our crazy nights of love lost each other's core and I still regret all the joy I had staying with you makin' love 'till the end of the world
you've never left my mind at all and you know my life now is only agony
