

Random Ruins Of Reality, Timeless Void

I don't want to fall
don't want to live
don't want to go
in a timeless void
don't want to miss
don't want to lose
your healing love
don't want to leave
don't want to move
from this sacred soil
don't want to fall
'till the mist will be gone from my birth to the last of morns you have hired a bodyguard who won't leave you alone from the borders of my skin to the deep core of my soul you're the wrost of my sins you're a redeemed vow
