

Randy Crawford, Why

why in the silence of the night do I hear a voice inside that cries, that cries for more since you rushed into my door You, gave to me your holy word, but you left me in this world I try, I'm try'n pray, but you light just fades away I'm walking through the night searchin' for a light, oh Lord I'm wanderin' in the dark lookin' for a spot, oh Lord longin' for the day can't you show the way, oh Lord don't leave me on my own it's hard to be alone
when nothing's going right when living'n believing is a fight don't leave me here alone shine you can take this heart of mine now do you help me travel high I cry, I cry'n pray
I won't let you fade away
I'm walking through the night searching for a light, oh God I'm wandering in the dark looking for a spot, oh God longing for the day
don't leave me all alone why can't I live without you why
