

Randy Meisner, The Girls Wall

this is a story about are class we are the boys that talk out are ass we taught the girls how to build up to the wall that theyve built up

but the girls wall
its nothing on ares
cos we are the boys
with all of are toys

we always play with are ball and always try keeping-it-up the lights come down in millions of pieces its all shattered and broke the cleaners feel choked cos we give them work

so if you get to see it remember to vote us
us the boys in are game and make the girls feel really lame are walls got so much more the girls wall is only poor the gave us a head..... headstart n we took the lead

so that is the game
and how it works
we thank u all for singin the song and remind u all
to vote for are wall
