

Randy Newman, Change Your Way

Where you goin'?
Your shoes undone
Throwin' rocks
Makin' fun of ever'one

Little man you make a big mistake
'Less you change your way

Stayin' out late
Every night
Chasin' after street cars and gettin' in to fights, yeah
Son, you're bound to break your Mama's heart
'Less you change your way

All the teachers
At the school, they
They know you well
'Cause you're always the worst one
You're always playin' the fool, I can tell
What's the matter with you, little guy?

Dont you know
Take my advice
Before you do somethin' bad you'd better
Think about it twice
You're sure to end up on the shady side
Unless you
Change
Your Way
