

Randy Rogers Band, Lay It All On You

It's funny how some people dream
They put on a show just to be on the scene
I don't know how many times I've stood right here
And you still don't see me
It may be wrong but tonight I'm gonna see those city lights
Cause it sure as hell beats lying here
Wishing I was on your mind

So tonight I'm walking and you started talking
About what you said we would never be
Oh and I've been worried it's the same old story I never know if you
I say it's the last time, just like I always do
I give you another chance and I lay it all on you

I caught myself out drifting
I guess sometimes it's good to be alone
Like a lonely gypsy I've got nothing to prove
And no one to call my own
I know there are people watching
Waiting for my next move
Yeah but they can't see that I'm too busy
Waiting on me and you

So tonight I'm walking and you started talking
About what you said we would never be
Oh and I've been worried it's the same old story I never know if you
I say it's the last time, just like I always do
I give you another chance and I lay it all on you
