

Randy Rogers Band, One Thing I Know

Woke up today and things had changed.
The man Ive become just aint the same.
Wanted to run but there was just nowhere to go.
Living in a dream world, praying it dont show.

Cause who I am, is who you want me to be
But Im having a hard time, finding me.
Well take my hand darling, wont you let me go
Gotta do this by myself, thats one thing I know.

Living my life on low-fuel,
Telling myself that Im a damn fool.
All of my friends up in Fort Worth tell me how Im brave,
Little do you know I almost lost it yesterday.

Cause who I am, is who they want me to be
But Im having a hard time, finding me.
Well take my hand darling, wont you let me go
Gotta do this by myself, thats one thing I know.

Ive got these demons on my trail.
Crazy and messed up, but no one else can tell

Cause who I am, is who you want me to be
But Im having a hard time, finding me.
Well take my hand darling, wont you let me go
Gotta do this by myself, thats one thing I know.

Gotta do this all alone, thats one thing I know.
