

Randy Rogers Band, Reason To Stay

Verse 1:

You look pretty good after all that you've seen
Your smile's still as bright as cause you're scared that they might Show all the world what you told me last night
And
And you're so sad you could just cry

Chorus 1x:

I'd sing you the sweetest songs, and hold you so long

And make you forget all the reasons

You talked about leaving this place

If you're thinking bout leaving,

I could give you a reason to stay

Verse 2:

You seem pretty calm after what you have done

Always rehearsed and you impress everyone

You're covered so well, that no one can tell

Your skin is on fire and your heart is in hell
And you're so tired of just being alive

And you're so sad you could just cry

Chorus 1x

If you gotta go, you ought to know I wont stand in your way

Just give me time and I'll change your mind
Soon you'll forget yesterday

Chorus 1x
