

Randy Travis, Right On Time

it's not my nature to be patient i jump every river i cross not one for following the sensible signs i can't count the times i been lost well you can't see where your going in the pouren rain, when your runnin into walls and feelen no pain.

we have all done time w/ the devil
and i've done mine
it took awhile to get here
but i'm right on time.

i may still regret some moments but it's just part of a ride i count myself among the fortunate ones who made it to the other side.

well you go what you go through to get where you are lucky for me i didn't go to far i turned around before the end of the line took awhile to get here
but im right on time.

well you can't see where your going in the pouren rain,
when your runnin into walls and feelen no pain.
but im right on time
it took awhile to get here
but im right on time....
